Additional information: The principal didactic material used will be the CAE Oxford Aviation Academy Principles of Flight book. The best option is a paper copy of the book so that notes can be made over that material. Those students that wish to use the digital format are permitted to do so keeping in mind that any use of the digital medium for anything not related to the specific Oxford book will be met with the corresponding sanction. Under no circumstance will students be permitted to review, prepare or otherwise study material not directly related to the specific subject being taught. In the interest of a more thorough understanding of the learning objectives, additional material in the form of photocopies will be handed out to the students. Both sources (the book and the additional material) should be equally considered when reviewing. Attendance in these classes is mandatory and essential in order to get the most out of the course. Students are not allowed to absence more than one third of the classes. It is an essential requirement to pass the final exam. The inappropriate use of any electronic device will be punished reducing automatically to zero the participation mark. Additional Considerations: The mark for active participation in class will be given based upon student involvement in discussion, student attentiveness, and a positive attitude toward learning the material. The mark for additional work will be given based upon student performance in completing the following criteria: The students will resolve some questionnaires during the course as training for their Progress Test at instructor discretion. The purpose is to help the students to cope with the exam and get prepared for them.
